The major averages finished the session higher, albeit off of their best levels. The Dow Jones Industrial Average gained over 24 points to 14,700 after being up as many as 91 points in early action. The S&P 500 was up 6 points to 1585, and the NASDAQ advanced 20 points bringing the index to 3289. Stocks edged higher through much of the day as investors responded to a positive report on weekly jobless claims and several corporate earnings reports. Equity markets did an exhale late in the session after Fed Chairman Bernanke warned that vulnerabilities in the markets still exist. Despite this, all 10 sectors on the S&P finished higher, led by gains in telecom stocks. Verizon Communications led the space with shares advancing 2.7% to $53.22 on news that the company was preparing a bid to take full control of the wireless unit from Vodafone. On the earnings front, United Parcel Service rose 2.3% to $85.42 and Dunkin Brands gained 3.7% to $39.00 as both companies topped analysts' estimates in the quarter. On the downside, 3M shed 2.8% to $104.88 after the company lowered their full year earnings guidance. Composite volume on the NYSE was 3.8 billion shares with advancing issues besting decliners by nearly a 2-1 margin. The NASDAQ was 5-3 positive on issues. Turning to fixed income markets, Treasuries were modestly lower with the benchmark 10-year note off 1/32 to yield 1.71%.
