1	Hosted virtual job fair	For the entire length of the reporting period, the SEU has continued to host a Virtual Job Fair (online) on each of the station's websites. The SEU dedicates digital space, solicits local employers, and organizes all logistical aspects of the event. The SEU promotes the virtual job fair through on-air announcements. The Virtual Job Fair generates much interest with community employers. The Director of Sales and Market President, along with Digital Managing Editor have been managing the virtual job fair. The SEU also participates as an employer.
2	Training/mentoring program for station personnel	Beginning on or around April 1, 2022 and continuing through October 2022, the stations' former Director of Content trained and mentored one of the stations' On-Air Personalities. The goal was to teach the programming side to the talent and prepare them for the possibility of taking over the role of Brand Manager in the future.
3	Training/mentoring program for station personnel	Starting on or around March 1, 2023, the stations' interim Director of Content began mentoring one of the stations' Brand Managers. The goal is to teach the BM the day-to-day operations of what it takes to be a Director of Content.
4	Provision of training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination	On May 12, 2023, the stations' Market President and Director of Sales each participated in the Diversity Recruiting Training offered via the LinkedIn Learning website.
