KEVIN SCOTT HAGGARD.

Defendant.

Department No. Cause No.

AFFIDAVIT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

STATE OF MONTANA : ss County of Missoula )

MAC BLOOM, Deputy County Attorney, Montana, being first duly sworn upon oath, deposes and says:

I have read the official law enforcement reports regarding the investigation of KEVIN SCOTT HAGGARD for allegedly committing the offense committed the offense of COUNT: ASSAULT WITH WEAPON, a Felony, in violation of Montana law, namely: Mont. Code Ann. 45-5-213.

Based upon the following facts which have been obtained from reports of the law enforcement officer which, if true, constitute sufficient probable cause to justify the filing of the charges. The facts from those reports are as follows:

 On September 10, 2017, at approximately 10:24 a.m., Deputy Larson, Missoula County Sheriff's Office, responded to a residence regarding a disturbance. Upon arrival, he met with Theresa Stephens, who had blood on her face and ear and a small abrasion on her elbow. Stephens stated that she had a confrontation with her neighbor, Kevin Haggard. Stephens explained that Haggard has a wood pile that leans up against their shared fence. The wood pile previously knocked the fence down and Haggard repaired it. However, Haggard began piling wood against the fence again recently. Stephens told Haggard that that arrangement was not going to work. Haggard responded by saying, "[Expletive] you, you [expletive] [expletive]."

Stephens used a rake to begin pushing Haggard's wood pile farther onto Haggard's side of the property. As she was doing so, Haggard grabbed Stephens's rake and hit her in the head with it. Stephens reported that Haggard also grabbed a piece of wood and hit her four or five times in the head with that. Haggard then threw pieces of wood at her, which hit her. Stephens reported that she saw stars when Haggard struck her, but did not lose consciousness. She stated that her pain level was a nine on a one-to-ten scale.

Deputy Larson observed that there were two cut pieces of firewood and a metal rake-head on Stephens's property. He found the rake's wooden handle on Haggard's property, on top of his wood pile. Deputy Larson then made contact with Haggard, who stated that earlier, Stephens came out of her house and began yelling at him about fixing the fence. Haggard told her to go back inside and may have called her a "crazy [expletive]." In response, Stephen's said, "I'll show you crazy," and charged at him with the rake. Haggard explained that he grabbed the rake from Stephens and assumed that it must have bounced and hit Stephens in the head. Haggard said that the pieces of wood
