The market pared early gains to finish slightly higher. The Dow added 42 points to close at a new record high of 14296. The S&P 500 Index increased 2 points to 1541. With today's gain, the S&P 500 is 1.5% below its all-time high of 1565 set on October 9, 2007. The NASDAQ was down 2 points to 3222. The market ended the session mostly higher following a better-than-expected labor report. The Fed's Beige Book added to signs that the economy is improving amid rising demand for homes and autos. However, a weak factory orders report tempered investor enthusiasm as bookings dropped in January by the most since August 2012. Overall, most sectors finished higher. Material stocks were the best performing group on the session. Cliffs Natural Resources gained 3.6% to $24.55 and Freeport-McMoRan advanced 4.1% to $32.84. Defensive groups held the market back as utilities and telecommunication stocks fell. Spectra Energy fell 1.0% to $28.91. AT&T lost 0.9% to close at $36.29. After the closing bell, notable profit tallies were due out from PetSmart and Vail Resorts. NYSE Composite volume totaled more than 3.6 billion shares. Breadth was positive on the NYSE by 5-4 on issues and 2-1 on volume. On the NASDAQ, advancers beat decliners by 5-4 on issues and by 4-3 on volume. Treasuries were lower for a third day. The 10-year note was down 12/32 to yield 1.94% and the 30-year bond lost 30/32 to yield 3.16%.
