

Your are cordially invited to attend....

Sports Concussion Management For High School Athletes “Changes and Trends in Treatment Approaches” Seminar

Join us to understand the latest changes and trends in concussion treatment approach for high school athletes.

5:30-6:00 registration/check in

Speakers:

- 6:00-6:05 Harry Carson: NFL Hall of Fame: Introduction
- 6:05-6:30 Kristine Keane, PsyD, System Wide Director, Hackensack Meridian Health: Concussion Management, Research and Treatment Alternatives
- 6:30-6:55 Stephanie Reynolds, D.O. Chairman of Emergency Medicine at Riverview Medical Center: Emergency Procedures for the Concussed Athlete
- 6:55-7:15 Jeremy Norman PT, DPT Hackensack Meridian Rehabilitation SOMC: Comorbid musculoskeletal Injuries assessment and treatment of the concussed athlete
- 7:15-7:30 Harry Carson: Panel Discussion with Athletic Trainers

- Fee: Free
- CEU's: Application for 2.0 credentialed CEU's have been formally submitted.
- Date: Thursday, May 4, 2017
- Time: 5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.
- Where: Two River Theater, Private Library
21 Bridge Avenue
Red Bank

Key Learning Objectives for Certified Athletic Trainers

- Understand diagnosis and treatment of the concussed child/athlete
- Identify the need for emergency care and understand emergency procedures
- Understand current research trends and clinical applications of cognitive rest, return to play and return to academia protocols
- Recognize and be able to apply treatment options for various musculoskeletal comorbid injuries/symptoms associated with a concussive injury.

Hackensack
Meridian Health