Hartwick College Recognized in National Rankings

ONEONTA, NY—Hartwick College, and its innovative FlightPath initiative, has earned high marks in the latest national college and university rankings.

Washington Monthly magazine raised Hartwick to 83 among 215 National Liberal Arts Colleges, up from 125th last year.

U.S. News & World Report recognized Hartwick as among the top 150 National Liberal Arts College, one of the Best Undergraduate Nursing programs in the nation, and gave it a particularly strong score in Social Mobility – tied for 22 out of 216 schools

Princeton Review named Hartwick one of the 223 Best Northeastern Colleges, and Hartwick was also featured in the latest Fiske Guide to Colleges, which provides direct student feedback on more than 320 colleges nationwide.

"Hartwick's inclusion and advancement in these national rankings is an early indication that industry observers see that FlightPath is enhancing how the College delivers a personalized education immersed in 21st-century skills," said Hartwick College President Margaret L. Drugovich. "We are pleased FlightPath is helping enhance our reputation as being responsive to our student's educational needs. It is with great enthusiasm we look forward to watching our graduates – those who will ultimately benefit from FlightPath – leave our campus well-prepared to meet the challenges they will face during their lives and careers."
