Incident Synopsis:

The Augusta Police Department is hosting a distracted driver education class tomorrow. This class will be geared towards our teen population of New Mainers in Augusta, however any teen driver is welcome to attend. The class will be instructed by Officer Carly Wiggin and Officer Christopher Hutchings. An interpreter will be on site to help with translations.

The class will help to educate teen drivers about the laws and consequences of distracted driving. This is a free class with the training paid by grant funding for distracted driving enforcement and education.

The class will be held at the Buker Center in Room #22. The class will start at 2pm and will run until 4pm.
