STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

Complainant has investigated the facts and circumstances of this offense and believes the following establishes probable cause:

On September 26, 2020, Plymouth Police officers were dispatched to a residence located on the 18500 block of County Road Six, in Plymouth, Hennepin County, Minnesota, on the report of a male pointing an assault rifle at a family. This was reported in two separate 911 calls.

Officers responded to the address, and encountered MALIK JON MIKAL BEASLEY, DEFENDANT herein, who walked down the driveway screaming at officers. On the way up to officers, Defendant removed a black sweatshirt placing it in a flowerpot.

Officers spoke with the parents of the family who called 911, Victims One and Two herein. Victims reported that they were visiting houses on the Parade of Homes tour with their thirteen-year-old child. When they pulled up to the residence, they noticed that the driveway was roped off and so they assumed the house was closed. The family pulled up on the shoulder of the road in front of the residence to look up another home to visit. Victims stated that they heard a tapping on the window of their car and looked up to see the barrel of an assault rifle on the window of their car. Victims saw Defendant wearing a black hooded sweatshirt, grey sweatpants, and slide type shoes pointing the rifle at them. Defendant stated, "Get the f—k off my property!" Victims pulled on to the road and saw Defendant continue to point the rifle at their vehicle as they drove away. The rifle was described as an all-black assault rifle with a forehand grip.

Officers conducted separate sequential photo lineups with Victims One and Two, which contained Defendant's photograph. Both identified Defendant as the person who pointed a gun at their family.

Officers also spoke with the second 911 caller, Witness herein, who was passing by in a vehicle when this occurred. Witness reported that he saw a male pointing an assault rifle at the window of a black SUV stopped alongside County Road Six. He described that the assault rifle had a scope.

Officers obtained a search warrant for Defendant's residence to locate the assault rifle and search for marijuana given the overwhelming odor of marijuana emanating from the residence.

Upon execution of the search warrant, officers located three firearms in the house including a SG Works automatic long gun assault rifle, a Tristar Compact 12-gauge shotgun, and a 9mm Glock handgun. The SG Works assault rifle had a scope and was located in the mudroom closet and matched the description of the rifle used in this offense. The shotgun was located in the main floor office and the 9mm was located in the master bedroom.

Officers also located a large quantity of marijuana in the basement living room and main floor office. The marijuana weighed 835.22 grams without packaging. Near the marijuana in the basement were three notebooks. One of the notebooks was entitled "TRAP!!" and had rules for smoking marijuana in the home, which included that Mutant Services will only spend $2,500 a month on weed and if you smoke weed without M&M, you must add a dollar to the jar. Another notebook indicated that Defendant is the CEO of Mutant Services.

Officers also noticed that Defendant's home was equipped with several surveillance cameras on the interior of the home. One of the cameras is situated near the mudroom, which has a door to the garage and contains the large closet where the SG Works automatic long gun assault rifle was located. A search warrant was served on the surveillance camera system provider and videos were recovered.

At 2:50 p.m., Defendant appeared in the mudroom video frame and asked whether a vehicle pulled up to the house. Defendant then went to the mud room closet wearing a black hooded sweatshirt and grey sweatpants. Defendant grabbed the SG Works rifle and made sounds like shots were being fired. Defendant then left the house out of the garage door.

At 2:58, Defendant reappeared in the video frame holding the SG Works rifle with his hood over his head having entered through the garage door. Defendant placed the rifle back into the closet that he retrieved it from.

The 911 calls were placed at approximately 3:00 p.m.

At 3:53 p.m., Defendant appeared in the video frame retrieving the SG Works rifle from the same closet and went into the garage carrying it. Defendant is heard yelling, laughing, and making shots fired sounds with his friends.
